PREFACE

Outline of Entire Code.

Included in this volume is an outline of the entire Montana Code Annotated (1978) for the benefit of users desiring an overview of the total plan of arrangement of the statutes.

Code Commissioner's Report.

The Code Commissioner's Report, also in this volume, is a report of every change made during the recodification project, other than punctuation and capitalization.

Constitution.

The Montana Constitution and its index are printed herein so that the user will have a handy reference until the code is reprinted in 1979, at which time the Constitution will appear in Volume 1.

Table of Corresponding Code Sections.

The Table of Corresponding Code Sections is printed in a separate volume to facilitate quick access to the same and assist the user in locating MCA statutes that correspond to R.C.M. 1947 sections or vice versa.

Annotations.

A new set of annotations, including commission notes, compiler's comments, case notes, attorney general opinion notes, references to selected Law Review articles, references to administrative rules, chapter and section cross references, and some collateral references will be printed in 1979 in volumes separate from the code sections. The annotations will be updated on a title by title basis whenever the bulk of new cases so warrants.

Code Supplements.

The code (statute text and histories) will be republished in its entirety following each session of the Legislature at a lesser cost than that of pocket supplements.

Council Staff — suggestions or criticism.

The recodified version of the Code was compiled and Annotations and Index written during 4 years of demanding work by the Legislative Council staff. The index is incomplete and we know errors in the code are inevitable. Please call collect — Helena (406) 449-3064 — with any problems, suggestions, or questions. We will welcome them. We believe we have produced a code arranged in a very logical manner and easy to use. We hope you agree!

Senate Bill Number 1.

The bill adopting the code was Senate Bill Number 1 of the 46th Legislature (1979), effective January 10, 1979.

CERTIFICATE OF CODE COMMISSIONER

The undersigned Code Commissioner, appointed pursuant to Chapter 419, Laws of 1975 as amended by Chapter 1, Laws of 1977, directed to recodify all the laws of a general and permanent nature appearing in the codes and session laws and prepare them for publication, and directed to prepare and submit an "Official Report of the Montana Code Commissioner," indicating all changes made during recodification, does hereby certify that the attached is a correct copy of that report as submitted to the 46th Legislature.

Diana S. Dowling
Code Commissioner

January 3, 1979

OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE MONTANA CODE COMMISSIONER — 1979

In accordance with 12-505(2) through (7), R.C.M. 1947, codified as 1-11-204, MCA, as enacted by Sec. 5, Chapter 419, Laws of 1975, the Montana Code Commissioner hereby reports all changes made during recodification.

The law requires a report in tabular or other form explaining all changes made other than punctuation and capitalization. In addition, section 12-506, R.C.M. 1947, (1-11-103, MCA) provides that:

> In case of any inconsistency in meaning arising through omission or otherwise between the provisions of the Montana Code Annotated and the corresponding portion of the official enrolled bill on file with the Secretary of State, effect shall be given to the official enrolled bill.

This report was prepared by Legislative Council staff attorneys. There was an attempt to be consistent in terminology. However, each attorney has a unique writing style so the same change expressed in different language reflects only the diversity of staff, not a difference in intent or meaning.

References to a subsection, such as "In (2) . . ." are to MCA subsections, not former R.C.M. subsections.

Standard Explanations — Reported by Section

Certain changes are common to many code sections and are reported by section. In order to save space such changes are referred to by number as follows:

1. Definition sections. The words "the following definitions apply" were added whenever necessary to provide a complete sentence so that capitalization and punctuation would be uniform.

2. Name changes. Inaccurate references to names of agencies or officers were corrected to conform to the 1972 Montana Constitution, Executive Reorganization Act, or other similar acts.

3. Internal references. When R.C.M. section numbers or words such as "act", "article", "section", etc. were changed to MCA references, terminology was chosen whenever possible to provide an exact correlation between the R.C.M. and MCA reference. Exact correlations are not reported because technically there is no "change". However, in many cases, because of rearrangement or legislative amendments to acts and sections, precise references were not possible or not appropriate. The various types of changes in internal references are listed below and referred to in the section-by-section report by number.

(3A) Exact correlation between the R.C.M. and MCA reference, but a change in phrasing, such as "chapter" to "part".

(3B) The R.C.M. reference contains more material than the MCA reference but the material that does not appear in the MCA reference does not affect the meaning of the reference.

(3C) The R.C.M. reference contains less material than the MCA reference but the additional material in the MCA reference does not affect the meaning of the reference.

(3D) The R.C.M. reference and the MCA reference overlap, with some material in the R.C.M. reference not contained in the MCA reference but which additional material does not affect the meaning of the reference, and with some material in the MCA reference not contained in the R.C.M. material but which additional material does not affect the meaning of the reference.

(3E) Correction of inaccurate R.C.M. reference.

4. Effective date. References to effective dates of acts have been changed to the date the act became effective.

Changes Common Throughout the MCA — Not Reported by Section

There were many changes of a nonsubstantive nature made during the recodification process for the purpose of uniformity. These are not listed by section but are explained here for the entire code:

(a) Punctuation. A uniform system of punctuation was adopted and punctuation changed accordingly whenever necessary.

(b) Spelling and capitalization. With certain exceptions, the practice of lower-casing most words as set forth in the Legislative Council Bill Drafting Manual was followed. Preferred spelling according to Webster's New World Dictionary was used.

(c) "Section" deleted. The word "section(s)" was deleted as redundant when referring to a code section number.

(d) Uniform internal section numbering. The uniform outline order for sections and subsections was followed: (1), (2), (3); (a), (b), (c); (i), (ii), (iii); (A), (B), (C), except in the Uniform Commercial Code which was not changed.

(e) Catchlines. Section catchlines were changed at will whenever needed to more accurately reflect the contents of the section. (Catchlines were not changed in the Uniform Commercial Code.)

(f) Internal references. References to R.C.M. titles, chapters, or sections were changed to MCA titles, chapters, parts, and/or sections. In some cases, phrases such as "preceding section" or "following section" are changed to the appropriate MCA section numbers. These changes are not reported if there is exact correlation between the numbers. For an explanation of when changes are reported see standard explanation 3 above.

(g) Numerals. A uniform system of writing numerals was adopted.

(h) Dates. A uniform system of writing dates was adopted; for example "the first day of July" would be written "July 1".

(i) Name of legislature. "Legislative Assembly" was changed to "legislature" to conform to the 1972 Montana Constitution.

(j) Relocation — rearrangement. Relocation of sections or subsections are not reported since obviously that is what recodification is all about. The Table of Corresponding Code Sections should be consulted for any relocation questions. In this report, "rearrangement" refers to internal rearrangement of sentence or paragraph structure.

Section 3. Inalienable rights. All persons are born free and have certain inalienable rights. They include the right to a clean and healthful environment and the rights of pursuing life's basic necessities, enjoying and defending their lives and liberties, acquiring, possessing and protecting property, and seeking their safety, health and happiness in all lawful ways. In enjoying these rights, all persons recognize corresponding responsibilities.

Section 4. Individual dignity. The dignity of the human being is inviolable. No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws. Right and justice shall be administered without sale, denial, or delay.

Section 17. Due process of law. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

Section 18. State subject to suit. The state, counties, cities, towns, and all other local governmental entities shall have no immunity from suit for injury to a person or property, except as may be specifically provided by law by a ⅔ vote of each house of the legislature.

Section 1. Definition. The term "local government units" includes, but is not limited to, counties and incorporated cities and towns. Other local government units may be established by law.

Section 2. Counties. The counties of the state are those that exist on the date of ratification of this constitution. No county boundary may be changed or county seat transferred until approved by a majority of those voting on the question in each county affected.

(2) If the legislature does not provide such procedures by July 1, 1975, they may be established by election either:
(a) Initiated by petition in the local government unit or combination of units; or
(b) Called by the governing body of the local government unit or combination of units.
(3) Charter provisions establishing executive, legislative, and administrative structure and organization are superior to statutory provisions.

Section 6. Self-government powers. A local government unit adopting a self-government charter may exercise any power not prohibited by this constitution, law, or charter. This grant of self-government powers may be extended to other local government units through optional forms of government provided for in section 3.

Section 7. Intergovernmental cooperation. (1) Unless prohibited by law or charter, a local government unit may
(a) cooperate in the exercise of any function, power, or responsibility with,

years after the first election. Approval by a majority of those voting in the decennial general election on the question of undertaking a local government review is necessary to mandate the election of a local government study commission. Study commission members shall be elected during any regularly scheduled election in local governments mandating their election.

2. Initiative for constitutional convention.
3. Periodic submission.
4. Call of convention.
5. Convention expenses.
6. Oath, vacancies.
7. Convention duties.
8. Amendment by legislative referendum.
9. Amendment by initiative.
10. Petition signers.
11. Submission.

Section 1. Constitutional convention. The legislature, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members, whether one or more bodies, may at any time submit to the qualified electors the question of whether there shall be an unlimited convention to revise, alter, or amend this constitution.

Section 2. Initiative for constitutional convention. (1) The people may by initiative petition direct the secretary of state to submit to the qualified electors the question of whether there shall be an unlimited convention to revise, alter, or amend this constitution. The petition shall be signed by at least ten percent of the qualified electors of the state. That number shall include at least ten percent of the qualified electors in each of two-fifths of the legislative districts.

(2) The secretary of state shall certify the filing of the petition in his office and cause the question to be submitted at the next general election.

Section 3. Periodic submission. If the question of holding a convention is not otherwise submitted during any period of 20 years, it shall be submitted as provided by law at the general election in the twentieth year following the last submission.

Section 4. Call of convention. If a majority of those voting on the question answer in the affirmative, the legislature shall provide for the calling thereof at its next session. The number of delegates to the convention shall be the same as that of the larger body of the legislature. The qualifications of delegates shall be the same as the highest qualifications required for election to the legislature. The legislature shall determine whether the delegates may be nominated on a partisan or a non-partisan basis. They shall be elected at the same places and in the same districts as are the members of the legislative body determining the number of delegates.

Section 5. Convention expenses. The legislature shall, in the act calling the convention, designate the day, hour, and place of its meeting, and fix and provide for the pay of its members and officers and the necessary expenses of the convention.

Section 6. Oath, vacancies. Before proceeding, the delegates shall take the oath provided in this constitution. Vacancies occurring shall be filled in the manner provided for filling vacancies in the legislature if not otherwise provided by law.

Section 7. Convention duties. The convention shall meet after the election of the delegates and prepare such revisions, alterations, or amendments to the constitution as may be deemed necessary. They shall be submitted to the qualified electors for ratification or rejection as a whole or in separate articles or amendments as determined by the convention at an election appointed by the convention for that purpose not less than two months after adjournment. Unless so submitted and approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, no such revision, alteration, or amendment shall take effect.

Section 8. Amendment by legislative referendum. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the legislature. If adopted by an affirmative roll call vote of two-thirds of all the members thereof, whether one or more bodies, the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors at the next general election. If approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the amendment shall become a part of this constitution on the first day of July after certification of the election returns unless the amendment provides otherwise.

Section 9. Amendment by initiative. (1) The people may also propose constitutional amendments by initiative. Petitions including the full text of the proposed amendment shall be signed by at least ten percent of the qualified electors of the state. That number shall include at least ten percent of the qualified electors in each of two-fifths of the legislative districts.

(2) The petitions shall be filed with the secretary of state. If the petitions are found to have been signed by the required number of electors, the secretary of state shall cause the amendment to be published as provided by law twice each month for two months previous to the next regular state-wide election.

(3) At that election, the proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors for approval or rejection. If approved by a majority voting thereon, it shall become a part of the constitution effective the first day of July following its approval, unless the amendment provides otherwise.

Section 10. Petition signers. The number of qualified electors required for the filing of any petition provided for in this Article shall be determined by the number of votes cast for the office of governor in the preceding general election.

Section 11. Submission. If more than one amendment is submitted at the same election, each shall be so prepared and distinguished that it can be voted upon separately.

Done in open convention at the city of Helena, in the state of Montana, this twenty-second day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two.
